WORTH MEETS WITH DEFEAT

CRACK JUVENILE FINISHES UNPLACED IN STAKE RACE AT LOUISVILLE.

Lady Lightning Is Easy Winner, with Sonada Secon and Ursula Emma Third-Churchill Downs' Highly Successful Meeting Ends.

Louisville, Ky., October 14.—The Louisville Racing Association's high class meeting terminated this afternoon with one of the best offerings of the season. Local lovers of racing turned out in large-numbers, the attendance being the second best of the meeting. Secretary Jasper's getaway offering was a splendid one originally, but rain which fell this norning changed track conditions considerably and served to mar the card by withdrawals. The fifth race was declared off and a new race substituted.

The Iroquois Handicap for two-year-olds brought together the recognized champions of the west, including the sensational Worth. He essayed the task of conceding much weight to his formidable opposition and met with defeat. The winner of the event turned up in Lady Lightning. Sonada, which was added at a late hour, landed second money, with Ursula Emma third, Wheelwright fourth and Worth fifth. Noses separated the quartet behind the winner. Worth suffered interference in the running, but the smart set attributed his defeat in the main to the going and his heavy impost. Sonada's performance was a brilliant one.

Falcada scored his third straight victory in the closing dash. Union Jack also proved a repeater when he beat a good band in the second. Bonne Chance afforded J. N. Camden to get a purse in the opener. Sam Barber was much the best in the third and Rubia Granda stoutly supported by the Chicago contingent, accounted for the substitute race.

The stake blanks for the Juarez meeting were distributed to horsemen today and met with favor.

Six horse cars, besides sleepers, day coaches and baggage cars, will make up the special train that will leave here Monday for Mexico City.

General Manager Winn stated today that the Churchill Downs meeting had come up to the management's expectations in every particular. He feels especially elated over the clean sport that has been furnished.

agement's expectations in every parent that has been furnished.

A special train with about 200 turfmen left tonight for Cincinnati. John Hachmeister will remain over until tomorrow and finish up his duties in connection with the Churchill Downs meeting. He will be at Latonia track in the afternoon.

STATISTICS OF LOUISVILLE MEETING.

During the eminently successful meeting of the Louisville Racing Association, which opened at Churchill Downs September 25 and came to a close yesterday, 108 races were run and $72.520 was distributed in stakes and purses, representing the satisfying daily average of $4,032.22. In this distribution 99 owners shared, with the following 48 winners of $500 and over:

MEXICO CITY RIPE FOR RACING.

Keen Interest Evinced in Approaching Meeting Under Management of M. J. Winn.

der Management of M. J. Winn.

City of Mexico, Mex., October 14.—The fall meeting of the Jockey Club of Mexico, which will begin October 29 and cover a period of seventeen days, will mark the first appearance in this city in eighteen years of representative turfmen from the United States for the purpose of racing horses here.

There have been many changes in Mexico since 1893, the season in which R. C. Pate made an effort to establish running racing in this great city. Up to that time the thoroughbred horse breeding industry of Mexico amounted to nothing. There were hardly a half dozen thoroughbred mares in the whole country. Since then hundreds of horses of rare and rich pedigree have been imported here.

Colonel Pate was the chief sufferer in introducing American racing here. He came before the time was ripe for the sport and he lost a fortune in his yenture. He had concessions as liberal as were ever granted by the Mexican Government and he might have succeeded had his capital lasted.

Circumstances are different now. Wealthy Mexicans, as well as other men of capital here, are now deeply interested in the thoroughbred and to make their stock valuable in a breeding way they must have racing. As a result much interest is manifested here in the coming meeting and its success seems assured.

For an inaugural meeting in a foreign country conducted under American management, the program offered is attractive to horsemen. No less than $2.000 in purses will be hung up daily for horses of all nationalities, and $700 a day is donated for races for horses bred in this country. As remarkable a filly as Round the World, one of the stars of the American turf, will be among the horses that will race here during the coming meeting, and Bettie Sucwinner of the Kentucky Oaks, is another that is coming.

The great feature of the meeting will be the Mexicans Dethy, worth not less than $8,000 or $9,000 in gold to the winner, which is more valuable than any turf event run in the United States or Canada this season. This race was

PENOBSCOT WINS THE WALDEN.

R. T. Wilson's Good Two-Year-Old Scores After His Stable Companion Falls,

Baltimore, Md., October 14.—The Maryland Jockey Cluff offered its patrons a high class program of eight races this afternoon and the largest crowd of the meeting turned out at Pimlico to witness the eight races this afternoon and the largest crowd of the meeting turned out at Pimlico to witness the sport.

S. C. Hildreth's high class three-car-old, Zeus, showed a splendid performance in the Eutaw Handicap, over the mile and five-eighths course. He picked up 120 pounds, cantered all the way and won hard held by a length from Sotemia

The Wilson Stable furnished the winner of the Walden Stakes in Penobscot, which scored with ease after making all of his own pace. Penobscot ran coupled with Flying Yankee and the stable declared to win with the latter. An accident on the first turn, where Dugan permitted the Belmont filly Mission to swerve to the inside, caused a masty jam in which Flying Yankee went down. The stewards were no doubt of the opinion that the foul was deliberate, as they promptly disqualified Mission and suspended Dugan for the rest of the meeting. The change in the placing gave second money to Garth and third place to Himation.

Thistledale created a new record for the two miles course when he won today's steeplechase in 3:56. Sinfran, one of the starters in this race, fell heavily at one of the fences and broke his neck.

Sherwood, which ran in the colors of J. E. Weldner in the Belvidere Cup, was claimed by C. C. Smithson, who secured the horse for $1,030. Sherwood was bred by Thomas C. McDowell and has shown good weight-carrying ability.

Gwynn Tompkins acted as one of the stewards during the running of the steeplechase, taking the place of William M. Manly, who had a starter in the race in L. Navarre.

Goldwick was cut down in his race today, being jumped on soon after the start.

BLACK BRIDGE WINS LAUREL FEATURE.

Laurel, Md., October 14.—A large crowd visited the Laurel track this afternoon. The Chevy Chase Steeplechase Handicap with Gentlemen riders in hunting costume was the chief feature, aside from a novelty contest.

Of the eight carded in the Chevy Chase, only three responded to the bugle call.

The Welkin ruled an odds-on choice, but her showing was disappointing. Black Bridge was able to take the lead a half mile from the finish, and drawing out in the stretch, won by six leneths. The Welkin was under the stoutest kind of pull for two miles, but when let down for the final struggle weakened.

Weikil was made let down for the final struggle weakened.

It was given out last night that jockey Byrne was in a bad way, as a result of his fall from Capitan Bravo. It now turns out that the report was incorrect. While Byrne was unconscious for a considerable time, he is all right beyond a shaking up, and it is said that he will be able to leave the hospital on Monday.

Jockey J. Wilson, who is under contract to J. W. Schorr, was taken to Washington yesterday and operated on for appendicitis.

Joe McLennan reports that the stakes for the meeting at Norfolk, which had their closing on Friday, have filled well.

K. Milburn and H. Flippen have sent their horses from Pimileo to the Benning track, so they can race at Laurel.

K. Milburn and H. Flippen have sent their horses from Pimlico to the Benning track, so they can race at Laurel.
H. C. Airhart arrived here from Toronto with a string of nine horses.
Fred Cook and John Walters were among those who witnessed today's races.
F. J. Pons arrived here today from Charleston, where there will be a winter meeting beginning January 10.

JUDGES CHANGE JOCKEYS IN WEST.

Spokane, Wash., October 14.—Pride of Lismore won the Speed Handicap at Coeur d'Alene this afternoon in a furious drive with Tern's Trick and Dr. Dougherty. Tern's Trick had 124 pounds up and it told on him right at the end, as he faltered slightly just before reaching the finish. The judges substituted E. McEwen for Mulligan on the winner at the last moment and also changed the rider of Usecit from Rosen to Pickens. This was done in view of the alarming manner in which these horses receded in the betting, coupled with a lessening of the odds on Tern's Trick.

The attendance was large and exceedingly enthus-

The attendance was large and exceedingly enthus-iastic. Fore Guard romped home by himself today, his race and the ride he received being in sharp contrast to his previous efforts when ridden by Mon-don, who was suspended at the time and only al-lowed to ride for his contract employer in future.

It was quite natural, with the caliber of horses engaged in the sport, that a number of track records should have been reduced during the meeting. Two of the performances represented new American records. The Churchill Downs records at the various distances now stand as follows:

ALL IS READY AT LATONIA

MEETING OF EXCEPTIONAL PROMISE SCHED-ULED TO OPEN TOMORROW.

Transfer of Horses from Louisville Will Be Complete by Tuesday and Accessions of Good Stables Are Expected Later from Maryland,

Cincinnati, O., October 14.—The twenty-four days' fall meeting which will open at Latonia Monday is perhaps the most promising in the long history of the Latonia Jockey Club. Some of the greatest racers in America will be seen in competition during the meetings. All of the stars that raced at Louisville will be on hand and when the meetings close in Maryland some more good stables will come west to the Milldale course. With racings at an end for the year in Maryland, the Latonia meeting will become the most pretentious in this country.

General Manager John Hachmeister has planned accordingly, having offered liberal purse inducements to attract the best horses and diversified his stakes with a view to gaining the general approval of horsemen. That he has succeeded is proven by the splendid entry lists.

Local interest in the Latonia race meeting this fall is decidedly keener than ever. The out-of-town delegations will be greater in numbers than herefore. This presages a far greater volume of patronage than ever before characterized a fall race meeting at Latonia.

The man the associate judge will be, as heretofore, John a Dillon. With such efficient officials in the stand, the race-going public may rest assured that the sport will be of the highest repute.

The first of the three special trains scheduled from Louisville arrived today. Another is due Sunday and early Monday morning the bulk of the horsemen will arrive from the Falls City. Today's arrivals included the main division of R. F. Carmau's string, most of the horses in care of trainer Frank Taylor and owned by H. C. Hallenbeck; trainer W. H. Karrick, in charge of the horses of Messrs. Hitcheock and Knapp; J. T. Ireland's band, including Cherry-ola; L. P. Doerhoefer's stable, part of James MacManus' lot, and J. R. Wainwright's entire consignment, including the four-time winner. High Private, which will carry top weight in the Latonia Autumn Inaugural Handicap. Other owners who shipped today were: J. T. Weaver, George M. Odom, Engene Lutz, W. H. Fizer, J

FURTHER DETAILS OF CHARLESTON VENTURE.

FURTHER DETAILS OF CHARLESTON VENTURE.

Lexington. Ky., October 14.—W. F. Schulte, former president of the New Louisville Jockey Club, and widely known in American turf circles, was here today en route to Louisville from Charleston, S. C., where it has been decided to race seventy-five days beginning January 10.

The meeting will be given by a new organization, of which Francis J. Fons will be general manager, under the charter of the old Charleston Racing Association, but at a new plant, said Mr. Schulte.

"For the construction of the plant, over which I will have supervision in the building, we have purchased 108 acres of land adjoining the gornment rifle range and to which there is a double street carline running over a paved boulevard. The grandstand, stables and track will be duplicates of those at Jacksonville. It is intended to spend $125,000 in the construction, which will begin as soon as I can get back there from Louisville, whither I am going to arrange for men for certain departments of the work. There are to be eight hundred stalls. Eighty per cent. of the stock in the association is owned by Charleston people and the merchants of the city are enthusiastic over the outlook. There will be no purse of less than $400 and it has been decided to give twenty stakes of from $1,000 to $2,500 value, with possibly a $5,000 Derby."

Mr. Schulte, while here, made a proposition to superintendent James P. Ross of the Kentucky Association track to go to Charleston in a similar capacity.

FURTHER DEPLETION OF AMERICAN STUDS.

Lexington, Ky., October 14.—John E. Madden said this afternoon that he has decided to sell fifty of his thoroughbred broodmares in Australia and that he will go to that country with them. He is planning to leave here in December. He is now in correspondence with reference to shipping rates.

Phil T. Chinn, Catesby Woodford and Johnson N. Camden are also making preparations to send about three carloads of thoroughbreds to Australia. It is likely that Phil Chinn will make the trip with them. They will, it is expected, go in November.

John Mackey and George Miller, who have just returned to New York from Germany, where fifty odd mares and weanings from the Elmendorf Farm were sold in September for an average of $550 a head, are expected here shortly to consult with Mr. Haggin concerning the shipment of all of the weanings now at Elmendorf to England. It is the plan to send them over in November and keep them at a place near Newmarket until next July, when they will be sold as yearlings. The purpose in sending them this fall is to have them thoroughly acclimated by sale time.

There are unverified ramors here to the effect that Rock Sand and a band of the best mares at August Belmont's Nursery Stud are soon to go to France.

Col. Milton Young has consigned fifty head of yearlings and broodmares to the November sale of the Powers-Hunter Company.

Went to post at 4:39. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. ROY JUNIOR took the lead in the first eighth and made the pace and, after being passed by BANORELLA near the paddock, rallied and outgamed her at the end. BANORELLA ran forwardly throughout and made a game, but tiring, finish. MARIGOT began slowly and made up ground into a distant third. DICK PAKER trailed to the stretch and finished well. ACUMEN quit after running well for seven furlongs.

Cincinnati clients may meet me "face to face" at the Gibson House, suite 135—SUNDAY ONLY. $10 for Latonia Meeting. SPECIAL—For Latonia, which opens Monday for twenty-six racing days, I have made some EXCEPTIONAL arrangements—PROBABLY the MOST LIBERAL of my turf career, still I am offering THE WHOLE OF LATONIA MEETING FOR $10. IF YOU PREFER Cour d'Alene and Laurel—tracks where the bookmakers are doing business—and which close Oct. 28 and Oct. 31, respectively, I will send ONE EACH DAY for the balance of both meetings for the nominal sum of $10. Here is a chance to purchase some gilt-edged information—FOR	HORSES which these operators will CUT LOOSE during this meeting and on which they will send big commissions to every racing center in the country. If my trust is not misplaced and you will treat me on the SQUARE, all I want is $10 from you after each horse has won at odds better than 4 to 1. It's simply a question of price on these horses, which I do not control. Both horses should be 10 to 1, but if only 4 to 1 I want you, just the same, TO REMIT AFTER THE RACE $10. If these terms are 0. K send me your name and address at once and you will hear from me. I will not recognize postal cards—don't send them. Only honest betters need answer. H. WILSON, care of E. C. THE TURF REPORTER, CHICAGO

BEST PROPOSITION ever handed out to honest bettors straight from owner. My partner, interested in several good rac horses, will bring off three or four good ones nex few days at Laurel track. I make the following proposition: Will you wager $5 straight for me on such horses, remitting the winnings of $5 following day. If so, send name and address on letter head or business card. You get wire from track day of race. J. WEESE, Hawthorne Race Track P. O., Cook Co., Ill.
